The Arranger

Few composer/arrangers can match the professional achievements and wide educational experience of Frank Cofield. He has earned recognition in all areas, as a performer, composer-arranger, conductor, teacher, clinician and band director. In a multi-media career, Mr. Cofield has massed outstanding credits in broadcasting, recording and the symphonic field. His numerous published works include swing and jazz marches, pop arrangements and serious compositions for the concert band. A native of Indiana, Mr. Cofield holds degrees from the University of Indiana and George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee. He is a member of A.S.C.A.P., Phi Mu Alpha and Phi Beta Mu.

Performance Suggestions

The articulation is well marked and will aid greatly in proper interpretation.

The pattern  occurs often and has the same articulation marking throughout.

Use a gong at the end if possible and let it ring, but as suggested on the score, do not substitute for the gong if none is available.

Some of the Muppet characters are now being merchandised in retail stores in hand puppet form. These could be used by band members so that the characters could rise up throughout the band, taking bows at the end of the music and peeking out from the wings.

Have fun!
